Aretha Franklin was born into a musical family in Detroit, Michigan. Her father was a Baptist minister and her mother was a gospel singer. Aretha began singing in church at a young age, and her powerful voice quickly gained attention.

In the 1960s, Aretha signed with Atlantic Records and released a string of hit songs, including "Respect," "(You Make Me Feel Like) A Natural Woman," and "Think." These songs became anthems of the civil rights movement and made Aretha Franklin a global icon.

Aretha Franklin continued to release hit songs throughout her career, and she won numerous awards, including 18 Grammy Awards. She was also inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and the National Women's Hall of Fame.

Aretha Franklin died in 2018 at the age of 76. She left behind a legacy of music that continues to inspire people around the world.

Aretha Franklin: Little People, Big Dreams is an inspiring biography of a true musical legend. This book is perfect for children who love music and for anyone who wants to learn more about the life of Aretha Franklin.
