Franklin is Bossy

Franklin is a little turtle who loves to be in charge. He always wants to be the leader and tell everyone what to do. But sometimes, being bossy can get Franklin into trouble.

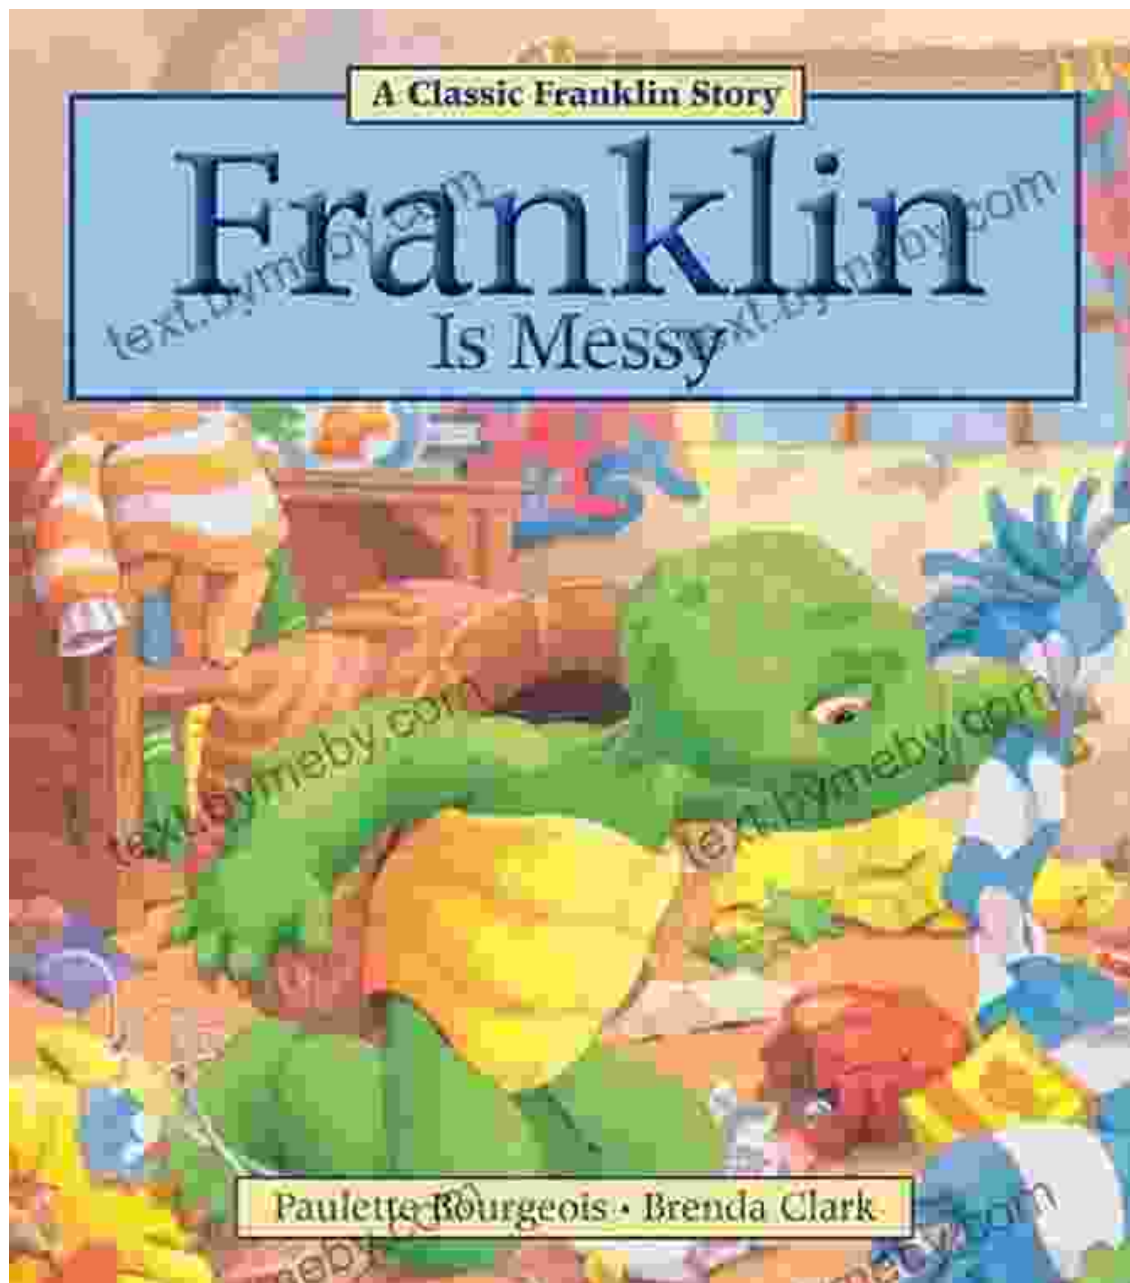

In this story, Franklin learns that it's not always good to be bossy. Sometimes, it's better to let others lead and to be a good follower.

Franklin Plays the Game

Franklin loves to play games. He's always the first one to suggest a game and he always wants to win.

But sometimes, Franklin gets so caught up in winning that he forgets to have fun. In this story, Franklin learns that it's more important to have fun than to win.

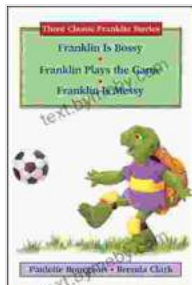

Franklin is Messy

Franklin is a messy turtle. He always leaves his toys scattered around and he never makes his bed.

But one day, Franklin's messiness gets him into trouble. He can't find his favorite toy and he's late for school.
