To honor their memory, renowned rose breeder Dr. David P. Rosen has created a series of exquisite roses that bear their names. Each rose is a testament to the woman it represents, capturing her spirit, her strength, and her unwavering determination. The roses are ablaze with vibrant hues, delicate fragrances, and exceptional hardiness, reflecting the resilience and beauty of these remarkable individuals.

In this captivating book, award-winning photographer Cathie Hicks has captured the stunning beauty of these roses, showcasing their intricate petals, rich colors, and graceful forms. Her exquisite images are accompanied by insightful and moving stories written by historian and author Susan Riley. Together, they create a mesmerizing tapestry that transports readers back in time, immersing them in the lives of these extraordinary women.

Discover the Stories Behind the Roses

Each chapter in Landmark Roses: Manitoba Canadian Historical Brides is dedicated to one of the 15 women featured in the book. Readers will be captivated by the stories of:

- Margaret Rose Henderson, a pioneer who traveled by oxcart from Ontario to Manitoba in 1873, establishing a new life in the wilderness.
- Nellie McClung, a suffragette and author who played a key role in the fight for women's suffrage in Canada.

- Agnes Macphail, the first woman elected to the Canadian House of Commons.
- Nellie Curtis, a nurse who volunteered to serve in France during World War I.
- Audrey McLaughlin, the first woman to lead a major federal political party in Canada.

And many more inspiring women whose stories and roses will captivate and inspire.
