Sample Annotation

Original text: "We visited the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and saw the tomb of Christ. It is a small chapel, and its walls are covered with rich tapestry. The tomb is a marble slab, and it is said to be the place where Christ's body was laid after he was taken down from the cross." (Chapter 21)

Annotation: The Church of the Holy Sepulchre is a Christian church in Jerusalem that is believed to be built on the site of Jesus Christ's crucifixion, burial, and resurrection. The church is one of the most important pilgrimage sites in Christianity, and it is visited by millions of people each year. The tomb of Christ is located in a small chapel within the church, and it is believed to be the place where Jesus' body was laid after he was taken down from the cross. The tomb is a marble slab, and it is covered with a rich tapestry. Many Christians believe that the tomb of Christ is a holy site, and they visit it to pray and to ask for forgiveness for their sins.
