One night, Max and his friends were playing in the woods when they came across a strange sight. There was a candelabra lying on the ground, and it was completely empty. Max and his friends looked around, but they couldn't find anyone else. They decided to take the candelabra back to Max's house to investigate.

When they got back to Max's house, they examined the candelabra more closely. They couldn't find any signs of how the candles had been extinguished. It was as if they had simply vanished into thin air. Max and his friends were puzzled. They had never seen anything like it before.

Max and his friends decided to do some research on the Chupacabra. They found out that the Chupacabra was said to be a nocturnal creature that was most active at night. They also found out that the Chupacabra was said to be very strong and fast. Max and his friends started to get scared. They realized that they might have actually encountered the Chupacabra.

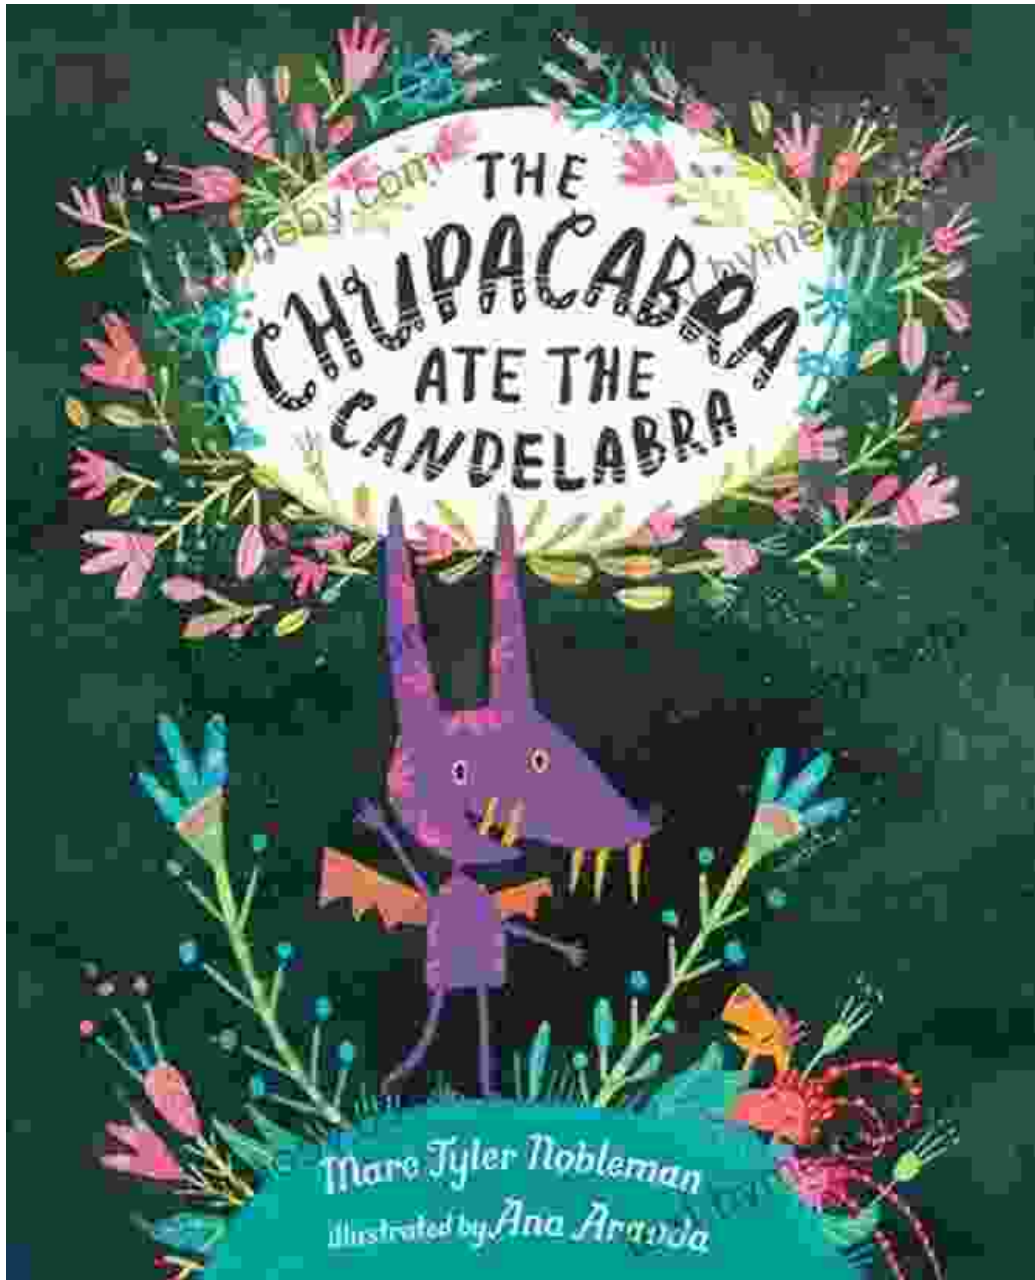

Max and his friends decided to stay up all night to see if they could catch the Chupacabra in the act. They set up a trap in the backyard, and they waited. Hours passed, and nothing happened. Just when they were about to give up, they heard a noise. They looked up, and they saw a pair of glowing red eyes staring at them. Max and his friends screamed and ran for their lives.

The next day, Max and his friends told everyone what had happened. No one believed them at first, but then they showed everyone the candelabra. The candelabra was completely empty, and there were no signs of how the candles had been extinguished. Everyone was amazed. They realized that Max and his friends had actually encountered the Chupacabra.
