Tim Tebow is a man of faith, a role model, and a true hero. He is the only quarterback in NFL history to lead his team to a playoff victory in his first playoff start. He is also the only quarterback in NFL history to have a perfect passer rating in a playoff game. But Tim Tebow is more than just a football player. He is a man who has overcome adversity to become a beacon of hope and inspiration for millions worldwide.

A Boy from the Philippines

Tim Tebow was born in the Philippines in 1987. His parents, Bob and Pam Tebow, were missionaries who had moved to the Philippines to work with orphans. Tim was the youngest of five children. When Tim was three years old, his family moved back to the United States. Tim grew up in Jacksonville, Florida. He was a gifted athlete and played football, baseball, and basketball. Tim was also a devout Christian. He attended church every Sunday and read his Bible every day.

A Football Star

Tim Tebow attended the University of Florida on a football scholarship. He was a star quarterback for the Gators. He led the Gators to two national championships. Tim Tebow was also a Heisman Trophy winner. He was the first sophomore to ever win the Heisman Trophy.

An NFL Journeyman

After graduating from college, Tim Tebow was drafted by the Denver Broncos. He played for the Broncos for two years. He then played for the New York Jets, the Philadelphia Eagles, and the New England Patriots. Tim Tebow was never a starting quarterback in the NFL. He was often used as a backup or a special teams player.

A Beacon of Hope

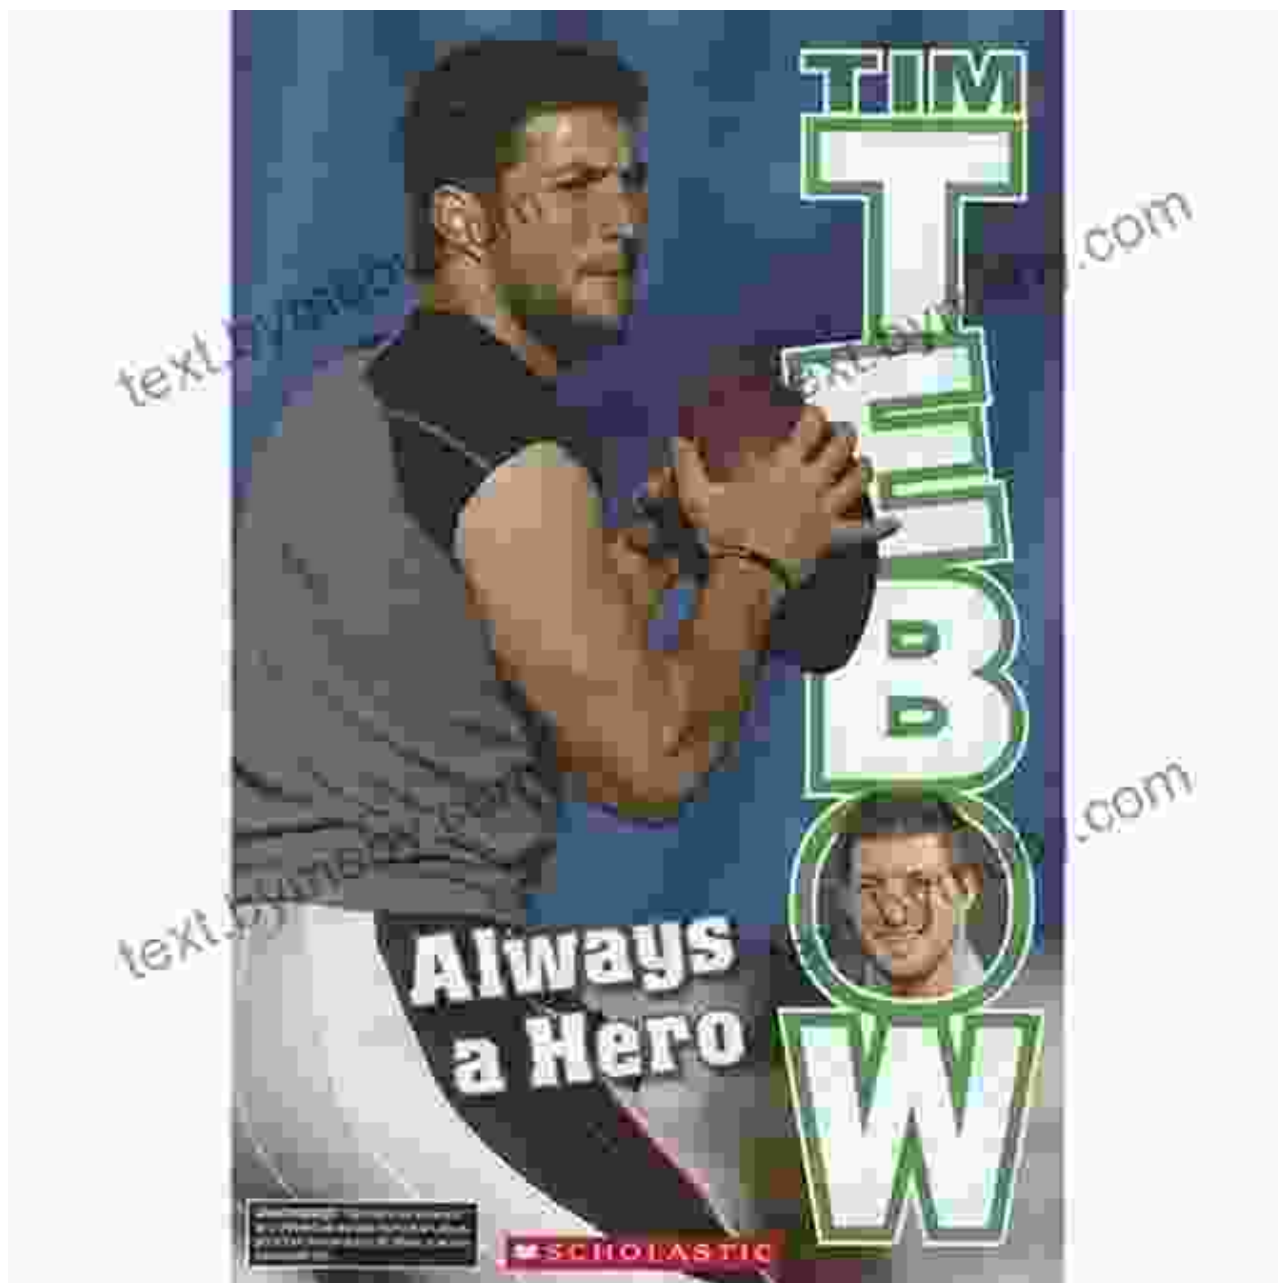

Despite his struggles in the NFL, Tim Tebow never gave up on his dreams. He continued to work hard and to persevere. He also continued to use his platform to inspire others. Tim Tebow founded the Tim Tebow Foundation in 2010. The foundation helps children with special needs. Tim Tebow also speaks to groups all over the country about the importance of faith, hope, and perseverance.
