Watarrka Kings Canyon

Watarrka Kings Canyon is a deep gorge that is located about 300 kilometers west of Uluru. Watarrka Kings Canyon is part of the Watarrka National Park, which is home to a variety of plant and animal life.

There are many ways to experience Watarrka Kings Canyon. You can take a walk along the rim of the canyon, hike to the bottom of the canyon, or take a helicopter tour. You can also visit the Watarrka National Park Cultural Centre to learn more about the Aboriginal culture.

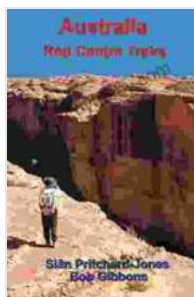

Planning Your Trip

If you are planning a trip to Uluru Ayers Rock, Kata Tjuta, The Olgas, or Watarrka Kings Canyon, there are a few things you should keep in mind.

- The best time to visit is during the shoulder seasons (April-May and September-October) when the weather is mild.
- Make sure to book your accommodation in advance, especially if you are traveling during the peak season (June-August).

- Bring plenty of water and sunscreen, as the Outback can be very hot and dry.
- Respect the Aboriginal culture and ask permission before taking photographs of people or sacred sites.
